Lord यम yama is in the process of finding out whether Nachiketa has the necessary mental fitness for gaining आत्मज्ञानं ātma jñānaṁ - Self Knowledge he seeks for his third वर, the third and final boon that is due to him.

First, Lord यम yama tells Nachiketa

न हि सुविज्ञेयं अणुरेष धर्मः अन्यं वर नचिकेतो वृणीष्व । 1 - 21
na hi suvijñeyaṁ aṇureṣa dharmāḥ anyāṁ vara naciketo vṛṇiṣva |

The आत्मा ātmā about which you are asking is so subtle that it is not easily understandable. Therefore, O Nachiketa, please ask for some other वर vara, to which Nachiketa replies:

वक्ता चास्य त्वदृक् अन्यो न लभ्यो नान्यो वर स्तुल्यः एतस्य कश्चित् । 1 - 22
vakta cāsya tvadrak anyo na labhyo nānyo vara stulyaḥ etasya kaścit |

Some other वर vara equal to आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānaṁ does not exist, and there can be no other teacher like you, equal to you, who can teach this knowledge, because you are the Lord of Death itself.

So saying, Nachiketa stands firm on his request for आत्मज्ञानं ātma jñānaṁ. While Lord यम yama is impressed by Nachiketa's single-minded devotion to आत्मज्ञानं ātma jñānam, he still wants to make sure that Nachiketa's interest in आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam is a genuine one, and not a tutored one.

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

Therefore now Lord यम yama is now tempting Nachiketa with suggestions for various alternatives from which to choose for his third वर vara. Lord यम yama tells Nachiketa:

For your third वर vara

शतायुषः पुत्र-पौत्रान् वृणीष्व बहून् पशून् हस्ति हिरण्यं अश्वान् ।

śatāyusaḥ putra-pautrān vṛṇīṣva bahūn paśūn hasti hiraṇyaṁ aśvān |

शतायुषः पुत्र पौत्रान् वृणीष्व śataayusaḥ putra pautrān vṛṇīṣva- Ask for children and grandchildren, each blessed with a life of 100 years

बहून् पशून् हस्ति हिरण्यं अश्वान् वृणीष्व bahūn paśūn hasti hiraṇyaṁ aśvaan vṛṇīṣva - Ask for many cows, elephants, gold and horses, which means ask for wealth of all kinds

भूमेः महत् आयतनं वृणीष्व bhūmeḥ mahat āyatanam vṛṇīṣva - ask for a vast kingdom on earth

स्वयं च जीव शरदो यावत् इच्छसि svayaṁ ca jīva śarado yāvat icchasi - and you yourself live with excellent health, for as many years as you like

नचिकेतः naciketaḥ - O! Nachiketa

महाभूमौ त्वं एधि (त्वं भव) mahābhūmau tvaṁ edhi (tvaṁ bhava) - May you become the king of a vast kingdom on earth, in which case

कामानां त्वा (त्वां) कामभाजं (कमार्हं) करोमि kāmānāṁ tvā (tvāṁ) kaamabhājaṁ (kamārhaṁ) karomi - the word काम kaama indicates both the desire for objects and the desired objects themselves. Therefore कामानां त्वा कामभाजं करोमि kāmānāṁ tvā kāmabhājaṁ karomi - I make you fit for the enjoyment of all your desires, and also, I make you the enjoyer of all your desires of earthly life.

So says Lord यम yama.

Noting that Nachiketa has exhibited no interest in anything Lord यम yama offered him so far, Lord यम yama now offers him something different, some pleasures of different kinds to test whether Nachiketa is attracted to such pleasures of life.

Lord यम yama tells Nachiketa:

ये ये कामाः दुर्लभाः मर्त्यलोके सर्वान् कामांश्छन्दन्तः प्रार्थयस्व ।

ye ye kāmāḥ durlabhāḥ martyaloke sarvān kāmāṁśchandantaḥ prārthayasva

इमाः रामाः सरथाः सतूर्याः न हि ईदृशाः लम्बनीयाः मनुष्यैः ।

imāḥ rāmāḥ sarathāḥ satūryāḥ na hi idṛśāḥ lambhaniyāḥ manuṣyaiḥ ।

आभिः मत्प्रत्ताभिः परिचारयस्व नचिकेतो मरणं मा अनुप्राक्षीः ॥ 1 - 25

ābhiḥ matprattābhiḥ paricārayasva naciketo maraṇaṁ mā anuprākṣīḥ ॥

ये ये कामाः दुर्लभाः मर्त्यलोके ye ye kāmāḥ durlabhāḥ martyaloke - whatever objects of desire, whatever pleasures are difficult to get in the world of mortals, in the world of human beings

(तान्) सर्वान् कामान् छन्दन्तः प्रार्थयस्व (tān) sarvān kāmān chandantaḥ prārthayasva - ask for all those pleasures

छन्दन्तः chandantaḥ - according to your own desires, with no restriction whatsoever

The कार शब्द kāra śabda for कामान् kāmān (कामां kaamāṁ) indicates that the objects of desire involved here are heavenly pleasures, not obtainable in the world of human beings. For illustrating such heavenly pleasures, Lord यम yama draws Nachiketa's attention to some very beautiful अप्सर apsara girls, celestial girls, around there and says:

इमाः रामाः (रमयन्ति इति रामा) imāḥ rāmāḥ (ramayanti iti rāmā) - These are celestial girls, highly accomplished in dance and music, and very well versed in the art of pleasing men

सरथाः सतूर्याः sarathāḥ satūryāḥ - They come with their own heavenly chariots and musical instruments

हि hi - certainly

ईदृशाः रामाः मनुष्यैः न लम्भनीयाः īdṛśāḥ rāmāḥ manuṣyaiḥ na lambhaniyāḥ - such charming celestial girls are not obtainable by men in the world of mortals, in the world of human beings, unless made available to them by divine beings like myself. Therefore

आभिः मत्प्रत्ताभिः ābhiḥ matprattābhiḥ - by these beautiful girls given to you by me

परिचारयस्व paricārayasva - get served by them as you like. You may enjoy their services to you as it pleases you, but

नचिकेतः naciketaḥ - O! Nachiketa

मरणं मा अनुप्रक्षीः maraṇam mā anuprakṣīḥ - Do not inquire, do not ask me, again and again about death. Do not ask me the question like "Whether आत्मा ātmā exists or does not exist after death. Because such knowledge is practically useless to you. Even if I tell you all about आत्मा ātmā, that knowledge will be useless to you because however much you search for आत्मा ātmā, you will not find it anywhere. Therefore, ask for something tangible which you can see, touch and enjoy by your own इन्द्रियाः indriyās, by your own organs of perception and action. But don't ask me anything about Death". So says Lord यम yama.

Now Nachiketa recognizes what Lord यम yama is doing to him. Lord यम yama is only trying to find out how deep is Nachiketa's desire for आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam. Nachiketa's अन्तःकरण antaḥ karaṇa - mind and बुद्धि buddhi remains unshaken by Lord यम's yama's arguments, and unstirred by all the alluring prospects and temptations held out before him by Lord यम yama. Yet he has to convince Lord यम yama that his overriding desire is only to gain आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam and nothing else.

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

Further, Nachiketa fully recognizes that it is his extraordinary good fortune to be face to face with Lord यम yama, with a commitment from Lord यम yama to give him the third boon of his own choice, and this is his only opportunity to gain पूर्ण आत्म ज्ञानं pūrṇa ātma jñānam and thereby gain मोक्ष mokṣa - total fulfillment in life. So realizing, now Nachiketa replies to lord यम yama in a voice low, soft, but sure.

श्वोभावाः मर्त्यस्य यत् अन्तक एतत् सर्वेन्द्रियाणां जरयन्ति तेजः । śvobhāvāḥ martyasya yat antaka etat sarvendriyāṇām jarayanti tejaḥ ।

अपि सर्वं जीवितं अल्पमेव तवैव वाहाः तव नृत्यगीते ॥

1 - 26

api sarvaṁ jīvitam alpameva tavaiva vāhāḥ tava nṛtyagīte ॥

अन्तक antaka O! Lord Death - O! Lord यम yama

श्वोभावाः śvobhāvāḥ - त्वया उक्ताः भोगविषयाः भोगाः च tvayā uktaḥ bhoga viṣayāḥ bhogāḥ ca

श्वोभावाः śvobhāvāḥ - I recognize that all the objects of enjoyment and the enjoyments themselves mentioned by you are श्वोभावाः śvobhāvāḥ - they are ephemeral, they are transient in nature. Whether or not they will continue to exist tomorrow is doubtful. They are अनित्य anitya. Therefore I am not seeking such objects of enjoyments, and such enjoyments themselves. Moreover, all such enjoyments born of wealth, power and pleasures of various kinds only जरयन्ति jarayanti wear out - what?

मर्त्यस्य यत् एतत् सर्वेन्द्रियाणां तेजः martyasya yat etat sarvendriyāṇām tejaḥ

- Whatever तेजस् tejas - whatever vigor, brilliance, capacity, etc. there is in all the organs of perception and action of a human being, which means, all the objects of enjoyment and the enjoyments themselves, only wear out whatever strength and capacity one has for the pursuit of the only That which is eternal, namely आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam that I seek. Again, as for the long life you offered me, I realize

सर्वं अपि जीवितं अल्पं एव sarvaṁ api jīvitam alpam eva - The life of every person including ब्रह्माणि brahmāṇi - the creator comes to an end one day. When that is the case, what to talk of the life of a human being. However long is human life, it is अल्पं alpam - it is indeed trivial. Further

तव वाहाः नृत्यगीते tava vāhāḥ nṛtyagīte - Regarding your celestial girls with their chariots and accomplishments in entertainment, dance and music

Hindu Temple of Ottawa-Carleton Inc.

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

तवैव tavaiva - तव एव तिष्ठन्तु tava eva tiṣṭantu - let them be with you only.
Please keep them for yourself. I have no use for them

So saying, Nachiketa has politely and firmly rejected all the wealth, power and pleasures offered by Lord यम yama to him, in lieu of आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānaṁ he asked for as his third वर vara.

Nachiketa's rejection of such wealth, power and pleasures is not a rejection born of ignorance of their values in life, but it is a rejection born of an analysis of their real worth to him in his present context. Giving his reasons for such rejection, Nachiketa says:

न वित्तेन तर्पणीयः मनुष्यः लप्स्यामहे वित्तं अद्राक्ष्म चेत् त्वा ।

na vittena tarpaṇīyaḥ manuṣyaḥ lapsyāmahevittaṁ adrākṣma ceta tvaa ।

जीविष्यामः यावत् ईशिष्यसि त्वं वरस्तु मे वरणीयः स एव ॥ 1 - 27 jīviṣyāmaḥ yāvat īśiṣyasi tvam varastu me varaṇīyaḥ sa eva ॥

न वित्तेन तर्पणीयः मनुष्यः na vittena tarpaṇīyaḥ manuṣyaḥ

मनुष्यः manuṣyaḥ - a human being

न तर्पणीयः na tarpaṇīyaḥ - can never be satisfied

वित्तेन vittena - by wealth and power

Man is never satisfied by wealth and power because it is well known, it is common knowledge, that however much one has wealth and power, one wants some more. Therefore, wealth and power never give a sense of fulfillment to a person.

Nachiketa says " I know very well that money and power do not satisfy anybody. Still money can buy a few things, and it is certainly useful. I understand that fully. In my case, if I really need money to do something that I need to do - I must do, I am sure that I will get that money, simply because that I have this good fortune to see you. To me you are परमेश्वर parameśvar itself, as भगवान् मृत्यु bhagvān mṛtyu as मृत्यु देवता mṛtyu devatā. I am blessed to see you. With your blessings, I will never be a poor man. I will ever be blessed with all the wealth I need."

Nachiketa is mature enough to appreciate the value of money. He knows that money can buy a book, and he also knows that money cannot buy the capacity to read a book. Nachiketa understands both the value of wealth and its limitations. Therefore he says:

लप्स्यामहे वित्तं अद्राक्ष्म चेत् त्वा (=त्वां)

Hindu Temple of Ottawa-Carleton Inc.
4835 Bank Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1X 1G6

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

lapsyāmahe vattam̐ adrākṣma ceta tvaa (=tvām)

त्वां अद्रक्ष्य चेत् tvām̐ adrākṣya ceta - If we, the human beings, have seen you, by your grace

वित्तं लप्स्यामहे vittam̐ lapsyāmahe - we will certainly get all the wealth we need

What Nachiketa means is that when he has such good fortune as to be graced by the sight of भगवान् यम bhagvān yama he can by no means suffer for want of wealth thereafter. Similarly, by the very grace of Lord यम yama, he is certain also that he will live a long and healthful life, which he says in the next line

जीविष्यामः यावत् ईशिष्यसि त्वं jīviṣyāmaḥ yāvat īśiṣyasi tvam̐

यावत् त्वं ईशिष्यसि yāvat tvam̐ īśiṣyasi - so long as you rule this world of human beings, so long as you remain as Lord यम yama

जीविष्यामः jīviṣyāmaḥ - we (the human beings blessed by you) will definitely live our full lives

Nachiketa says "As long as you are Lord यम yama, I will definitely live a long life, because I have already been released from the jaws of death once. Therefore, I am sure I am not going to live a short life. I will live a full life by your grace.

A mortal like me, having come so close to you face to face, how can I go back with limited wealth and longevity. Your eyes have already fallen upon me. Your grace is upon me. Definitely I will be blessed with all the wealth and long life I need. I am sure about that. Therefore, I need not ask for such things, as wealth and long life, for my third boon, I will get them naturally by your blessings. That being so,

वरस्तु मे वरणीयः स एव varastu me varaṇīyaḥ sa eva

तु तस्मात् tu tasmāt - therefore

वरः मे वरणीयः varaḥ me varaṇīyaḥ - The boon that is worth praying for by me is

सः एव saḥ eva- That only, namely आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam- Self Knowledge, already asked for

In the next verse, Nachiketa gives another reason why he seeks only आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam, and nothing less for his third वर vara. Nachiketa says:

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

अजीर्यताम् अमृतानां उपेत्य जीर्यन् मर्त्यः क्वधःस्थः (क्व तदास्थः) प्रजानन् ।

ajīryatām amṛtānām upetya jīryan martyaḥ kvadhassthaḥ (kva tadāsthaḥ) prajānan ।

अभिध्यायन् वर्णरति प्रमोदान् अतिदीर्घे जीविते को रमत ॥

1 - 28

abhidhyāyan varṇarati pramodān atidīrghē jīvite ko ramata ॥

अजीर्यतां अमृतानां उपेत्य ajīryatām amṛtānām upetya - Having got the rare opportunity of reaching and meeting heavenly देवताs devatās - celestial Gods like you who are

अजीर्यतां ajīryatām - never subject to aging and also

अमृतानां amṛtānām - who are immortal

जीर्यन् मर्त्यः क्वधःस्थः jīryan martyaḥ kvadhahsthaḥ

क्वधःस्थः kvadhahsthaḥ - a human being on earth being ever subject to

जीर्यन् मर्त्य jīryan martyaḥ - aging and death

In some versions the word क्वधःस्थः kvadhahsthaḥ is replaced by the word क्व तदास्थः kva tadāsthaḥ which means a human being absorbed in the worldly life of कर्म karma and कर्म फल karma phala.

Such a human being

प्रजानन् prajānan - knowing clearly that आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam - Self Knowledge leading to the highest goal of life, namely मोक्ष mokṣa, can be gained from देवताs devatās like yourself, and also

अभिध्यायन् abhidhyāyan - having analyzed all of one's experiences in life, and realizing the transient and essentially wasteful nature of pursuits of

वर्ण-रति प्रमोदान् varṇa-rati pramodān - the transient pleasures of music, dance and frivolous enjoyments of various kinds

अतिदीर्घे जीविते, को रमेत atidīrghē jīvite, ko rameta

कः रमेत kaḥ rameta - who can enjoy, which person who has विवेक बुद्धि vivek buddhi can enjoy

Hindu Temple of Ottawa-Carleton Inc.
4835 Bank Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1X 1G6

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

अतिदीर्घं जीविते atidirghe jivite - in living a long life of such trivial and essentially wasteful pursuits. It would be absolute foolishness on the part of a person with विवेक बुद्धि viveka buddhi to ask for ephemeral worldly enjoyments from immortal Gods like you, knowing that आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam - Self Knowledge leading to मोक्ष mokṣa - the highest पुरुषार्थ puruṣārtha of human existence can be gained from you. Naturally therefore, I must seek from you only आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam - Self Knowledge and nothing less, for my third चर vara, so says Nachiketa.

What Nachiketa tells here is what we have heard also in the भगवत् गीता bhagvat gītā. We may recall Sri Krishna's words here:

ये हि संस्पर्शजा भोगाः दुःखयोनय एव ते । ye hi saṁsparśajā bhogāḥ duḥkhayonaya eva te । आद्यन्तवन्तः कौन्तेय न तेषु रमते बुधः ॥ (G 5-22)
ādyantavantaḥ kaunteya na teṣu ramate budhaḥ ॥

The enjoyments born of sense organs and contacts with sense objects are दुःखयोनयः duḥkha yonayaḥ. They are only causes for sorrow, because getting them is stressful, and afterwards, losing them is sorrowful. Consequently, the whole experience only ends up in sorrow and distress. Therefore बुधः तेषु न रमते budhaḥ teṣu na ramate - a wise person, one who has विवेक बुद्धि viveka buddhi, does not rejoice in such experiences.

Thus, gently, respectfully, and firmly rejecting all the अनित्य कामाः anitya kāmāḥ - transient objects of desire offered by Lord यम yama in lieu of आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam - Self Knowledge, Nachiketa repeats his request for आत्म ज्ञानं ātma jñānam for his third and final चर in the following words:

यस्मिन्नदं विचिकित्सन्ति मृत्यो यत् साम्पराये महति ब्रूहि नस्तत् । yasminnidaṁ vicikitsanti mṛtyo yat sāmparāye mahati brūhi nastat ।

मृत्यो mṛtyo O! Lord मृत्यु mṛtyu - O! Lord यम yama! Please do not offer me any more अनित्य कामाः anitya kāmāḥ - transient pleasures of life. I definitely do not seek them.

ब्रूहि नस्तत् brūhi nastat - तत् ब्रूहि नः tat brūhi naḥ - Please tell us, human beings, That which I prayed for already, namely

Hindu Temple of Ottawa-Carleton Inc.
4835 Bank Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1X 1G6

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

यस्मिन् इदं विचिकित्सन्ति yasmin idam vicikitsanti - यस्मिन् yasmin meaning यस्मिन् आत्मनि विषये yasmin ātmani viṣaye - in which matter about आत्मा ātmā - The Self

इदं विचिकित्सन्ति idam vicikitsanti - people entertain this doubt as to whether आत्मा ātmā exists or not, and

साम्पराये sāmparāye meaning परलोक विषये paraloka viṣaye about the matter concerning the world to which a person goes when one dies - about that world of आत्मा ātmā, because, unless there is an आत्मा ātmā other than one's physical body, there is no question of one going to another world after death. Therefore,

साम्पराये sāmparāye means आत्म विषये ātma viṣaye - about the matter concerning आत्मा ātmā

यत् महति yat mahati - यत् yat meaning आत्मनः निर्णय विज्ञानं तत् ātmanah nirṇaya vijñānam tat - that which is well-ascertained and definite knowledge. तत् tat that knowledge which is महति mahati exalted knowledge - supreme knowledge, because it leads to supreme state of existence, namely मोक्ष mokṣa.

तत् नः ब्रूहि tat naḥ brūhi - please tell us human beings That knowledge for the good of the entire humanity.

O! Lord यम yama, please tell me, please tell us human beings, for the benefit of all humanity, about that supreme knowledge of आत्मा ātmā about which there is doubt among people.

So saying Nachiketa concludes what he has to say in response to Lord यम's yama's offers.

Now summarizing Nachiketa's answer to Lord यम yama, the Upanishad says:

योऽयं वरो गूढमनुप्रविष्टो नान्यं तस्मात् नचिकेता वृणीते । 1 - 29

yo'yaṁ varo gūḍhamanupraviṣṭo nānyaṁ tasmāt naciketā vṛṇīte |

यः अयं (आत्म विषयः) वरः yaḥ ayaṁ (aatma viṣayaḥ) varaḥ - This boon about knowledge of आत्मा ātmā

गूढं अनुप्रविष्टः gūḍham anupraviṣṭaḥ - which remains a secret, because it is not available for direct perception or easy understanding

Hindu Temple of Ottawa-Carleton Inc.
4835 Bank Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1X 1G6

ब्रह्मविद्या Brahma Vidya

तस्मात् (वरात्) अन्यं वरं tasmāt (varāt) anyam varam - another वर, other than knowledge of आत्मा ātmā,

नचिकेता न वृणीते- मनसा अपि, न वृणीते naciketā na vṛṇīte - manasā api, na vṛṇīte Nachiketa does not pray for, even in thought

Apart from this boon, which relates to the inscrutable आत्मा ātmā, Nachiketa does not pray for, does not ask for, any other boon. So concludes the first section of this Upanishad

इति प्रथमा वल्ली iti prathamā vallī

Lord यम 's yama's discourse on Vedanta starts with the next verse in Section 2 which we will see next time.
