Singing Bhajans during the regular temple activity on Sundays

The following temple policy has been followed for the last 27 years. It has been going well all these years.

1. 11.00-11.45 am Option given to the Sunday host to arrange singing by the members of the family and friends. If this option is not possible then we follow the second option.

2. 11.45-12.10 pm General participation (Singing by other devotees) in certain order such as:
 1. One bhajan per person unless there are no other singers
 2. Bhajan should not be longer than 3-5 minutes
 3. Alternate bhajan singing between gents and ladies.

Punctuality is very important

Recently we had lot more devotees who would like to sing bhajans. If the present system does not work out, we may consider making the following changes at some point.

1. The devotee will take a number and the singing will be by numbers.(as followed by many other organizations) and or

2. Give last 25 minutes to the host family and the general participation will be from 11.00 to 11.45. This will gives extra 15 minutes for general participation.

Let us all try to make the present policy work.
